APTOS, Calif. — The third annual Farm to Fork Gala, benefiting local nonprofit Community Bridges, raised over $63,000 for the organization's ten human services programs across Santa Cruz County.

The Aug. 4 event, held at Aptos Village Park, featured a locally sourced dinner by Teen Kitchen Project, local wines, Discretion Brewing beer, a live band, a live auction and an address by Tom Broz, owner of Live Earth Farm and president of the Santa Cruz County Farm Bureau Board of Directors.

Event proceeds will benefit Community Bridges' family of 10 programs that collectively serve 20,000 children, families and seniors in Santa Cruz County each year.

Business and media sponsors of the event included Aegis of Aptos, Bontadelli Farms, California Giant Berry Farms, Driscoll's, Granite Construction, KION 5/46, Langlois Fancy Frozen Foods, LPL Financial, Nordic Naturals, Santa Cruz Sentinel, Sutter Maternity & Surgery Center, System Studies and Times Publishing Group.
